

Workshop on Contested Monuments Day 2 – 15 May 2024

At the University of Bonn: Tagungsraum des Internationalen Zentrums für Philosophie NRW (IZPH), Poppelsdorfer Allee 28.

Online: Please register at globalheritagelab@uni-bonn.de to receive the Zoom link.

Please register by 10 May at globalheritagelab@uni-bonn.de if you want to participate online or in person.

Session 1. 10:00-11:45 CET

Moderator: Kelechi Ugwuanyi

10:00-10:20	Karoline Noack and Julia Binter (University of Bonn), Paul Basu (University of Oxford, UK)	Introduction to the workshop series, summary of Workshop 1, introduction to Workshop 2, Morning session
10:20-10:40	Lesley Hatipone Machiridza (Great Zimbabwe University, Zimbabwe)	Transition from anti-colonial war to peace? Liberation heritage and war memorials in post-colonial Zimbabwe: The case of the Bulawayo Provincial Heroes Acre
11:40-11:00	Paul Basu (University of Oxford, UK)	Commonwealth War Graves Commission Non-Commemorated Programme, Sierra Leone [tbc]
11:00-11:20	Sophia Labadi (University of Kent, UK; and University of Bonn)	Monuments and/as reparation in Nairobi, Kenya.
11:20-11:45	Discussant-led Q&A

Session 2. 15:00-16:30 CET

Moderator: Julia Binter

15:00-15:10	Sophia Labadi (University of Kent, UK, and University of Bonn)	Introduction to Workshop 2, Afternoon session
15:10-15:30	Nicole Maurantonio (University of Richmond, USA)	Pink, papered, and prone: The rhetoric of the Valentine's display of Richmond's Jefferson Davis statue
15:30-15:50	Linda Levitt (Stephen F. Austin State University, USA)	Paint her portrait everywhere: Memorializing Breonna Taylor
15:50-16:10	Elise Kleitz (Brandenburg University of Technology, Cottbus, Germany)	Beyond eternal stones: on art and ephemeral monuments
16:10-16:30	Discussant-led Q&A	