

Consent form for participation in the iStudy Family and Friends Program

By registering for the above-mentioned program, I agree to the following terms and conditions and to the processing of my data:

1. Data protection and use of personal data: I consent to the collection, storage, and processing of my personal data (such as name, email address, degree program, interests, etc.) for the purposes of organizing and implementing the program. My data will be used exclusively for this program and will not be passed on to third parties unless this is necessary for the implementation of the program (e.g., for assignment to specific groups or for the creation of a participant directory).
2. Image and sound recordings: I agree that photos, video, and sound recordings may be made during events in which I may be depicted or heard. These recordings may be used for documentation and advertising purposes (e.g., on the organizer's website or social media). I may object in writing at any time if I do not wish to appear in these recordings.
3. Terms and conditions of participation: I confirm that I am attending the program at my own risk. The organizer accepts no liability for personal injury or loss that may occur during the event. Participation in the program is on a voluntary basis. The mentoring relationship is organized by the participants themselves. The University of Bonn accepts no liability for the implementation or content of the mentoring relationships. By registering, you confirm that you understand the voluntary nature of the mentoring relationship and that you are responsible for your own participation.
4. Nutritional needs and special requirements: I have provided the organizers with all relevant information about my diet (e.g., allergies or special diets) and will notify them in good time of any changes.
5. Contact information: I agree that the contact information provided may be used within the scope of the program to inform me about organizational details, changes, or similar information.
6. Withdrawal of consent: I am aware that I can withdraw my consent to the processing of my data at any time without giving reasons. However, such withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of the data processing that took place prior to the withdrawal.

I have read the privacy policy and accept the above terms and conditions.
