Call for Applications for a Study Trip to Berlin as Part of the DAAD’s “Zukunft Ukraine” Program

Students at the University of Bonn are entitled to apply for spaces on the fully funded trip to Berlin being organized as part of the “Zukunft Ukraine” (“Future of Ukraine”) program launched by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD).

The funding covers:

- Return train travel Bonn–Berlin
- Three nights’ hotel accommodation, including breakfast (in a double room shared with a fellow traveler)
- A stimulating program of events while in Berlin (including a visit to the Federal Chancellery, talks and a guided tour of the city)

Participants must pay for their own food and drink in Berlin as well as any other leisure activities.

When: Leave for Berlin in the late afternoon on Thursday, June 15, 2023; leave to return to Bonn at midday on Sunday, June 18, 2023.

Who can apply: Students working toward a degree in any subject at the University of Bonn; half the spaces are reserved for students from Ukraine. The guided tours and other events will mainly be held in German, with only a few offered in English. You will therefore need a good command of both languages.

Application documents to be submitted:

- Curriculum vitae (in German or English)
- Letter of motivation referencing your own relationship with Ukraine, German-Ukrainian cooperation and a vision for Ukraine’s future in a European context (around one page, in German or English)
- Certificate of enrollment

Please email your documents as a single PDF to support@verwaltung.uni-bonn.de.

The application deadline is April 16, 2023

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact Marina Kohl-Wagner at support@verwaltung.uni-bonn.de.