World-Class Academics: The University of Bonn is looking back at over 200 years of history. In seven faculties, over 100 disciplines and six research Clusters of Excellence, internationally leading academics are working at the cutting edge of their subject.

International Profile: The university hosts more than 38,000 students, of which over 5,000 are from about 130 countries. It is active in a large number of international networks and projects, including student, research and staff exchange.

Vibrant Campus Life: From free concerts and lectures, film screenings to art exhibitions and great sport facilities, students enjoy dynamic social and cultural encounters on different campus locations throughout the city.

Location: Our Rhineland location places us at the heart of Europe, making it easy for you to explore Germany and neighboring countries such as the Netherlands and Belgium. As the German city of the United Nations, Bonn hosts 20 UN centers and a range of international organizations.
