

Workshop: „Career Strategies for International Bachelor Students“

Are you an international bachelor student wondering whether to start working or continue with a master's degree in Germany (or elsewhere)?

In this interactive workshop, you'll explore current key facts about the German job market –including employment trends, visa options, and what employers expect from bachelor vs. master graduates.

Through reflection and practical exercises, you'll discover your strengths, identify suitable work environments, and learn how to plan your career strategy and to find entry points such as internships, working student jobs, or graduate programs.

Join this workshop and make your future path clearer for you.

Friday, January 23rd 2026, from 2 pm to 6 pm
