

The Faculty of Arts of the University of Bonn is seeking to fill a

W 2 Professorship in Teaching English as a Foreign Language at the Department of English, American and Celtic Studies at the earliest opportunity.

Suitable candidates will be able to cover the field of TEFL in teaching and research and contribute to the development of this field with their innovative research. In addition to offering courses in the B.A. and M.Ed. teaching degree programs (Gymnasium, Gesamtschule, Berufskolleg), their tasks include supervising internships at schools and mentoring junior researchers. We expect candidates to be willing to collaborate with colleagues in the Department as well as with colleagues in the field of teaching methodology, the Department of Educational Science at the Bonn Centre for Teacher Education (BZL) and the Centre for Practical Teacher Training (ZfsL) Bonn.

A relevant PhD and Habilitation or equivalent achievements (see §36 HG NRW) are required. Teaching experience gained in schools (ideally certified by the Second State Exam) is desirable. Prior experience with applying for third-party funding or with third-party funded projects is also desirable.

The hiring requirements are in accordance with §36 of the Hochschulgesetz NRW.

The University of Bonn is committed to diversity and equal opportunities. It is certified as a family-friendly university and has a dual career service. It aims to increase the proportion of women in areas where women are underrepresented and to promote their careers. The University of Bonn therefore strongly encourages women with relevant qualifications to apply for the position. Applications will be dealt with in accordance with the Landesgleichstellungsgesetz (State Equality Act). Applications by qualified individuals with certified serious disability and by those of equal status are particularly welcome.
