The Faculty of Arts at the University of Bonn is inviting applications for a Junior Professorship (W1) with tenure-track (to W2)

in Reconciliation Studies to be filled April 1, 2023.

We are looking for applicants whose research is focused on interdisciplinary comparative cross-cultural research in the field of reconciliation studies. Ideally applicants should have experience in international collaborative research in the areas of transitional justice and conflict transformations. Applicants should be able to master both theoretical and empirical methodologies of the humanities. The successful candidate will be expected to participate in the development of the Bonn Center for Reconciliation Studies.

Applicants must hold a PhD in a relevant subject. The successful applicant is expected to have experience in working in a team and in working internationally. Excellent oral and written German and English is required, and relevant teaching experience is expected.

Regulations on tenure track at the University of Bonn and further information on tenure track professorships at the University of Bonn are available at https://www.uni-bonn.de/en-tenure-track

Formal requirements are defined by § 36 of the Higher Education Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (Hochschulgesetz Nordrhein-Westfalen).

The University of Bonn is committed to diversity and equal opportunities. It is certified as a family-friendly university and has a dual career service. The university's goal is to increase the share of women in areas where women are underrepresented and to promote their careers in particular. It therefore strongly encourages applications from women with qualifications in the relevant fields. Applications are handled in accordance with the State Equal Opportunity Act (Landesgleichstellungsgesetz). Applications from suitable individuals with certified severe disabilities and those of equal status are particularly welcome.

Please apply via our online portal: https://berufungsportal.uni-bonn.de. The deadline for applications is October 31, 2022.

The criteria of the interim evaluation as well as the final evaluation can be found under the following link / QR-Code:

https://bit.ly/3tFX1Cn