The Department of Economics at the University of Bonn, Germany, invites applications for an

Assistant Professorship (W1 Juniorprofessur) in Economic History, fixed-term

starting as soon as possible. Formal requirements are regulated by §36 Higher Education Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (Hochschulgesetz des Landes Nordrhein-Westfalen).

The position is initially offered for a three-year period and, subject to a positive mid-term evaluation, extended by another three years. The teaching load generally corresponds to one course per semester. All teaching at the graduate level is conducted in English. Teaching at the undergraduate level can be conducted in English or German. Candidates are expected to demonstrate excellent research potential in economic history and be able to teach courses in the field of macroeconomics at the graduate level.

Please submit your application, including a CV, a research statement, transcripts, your job market paper, and 2-3 recommendation letters via the online portal https://econjobmarket.org.

Applications received by November 15, 2021 are guaranteed full consideration.

For further information, please visit www.econ.uni-bonn.de or contact Prof. Dr. Moritz Schularick (schularick@uni-bonn.de).

The University of Bonn promotes the diversity of its members. It is certified as a family-oriented university and has a dual career service. Its aim is to increase the proportion of women in scientific staff and to promote their careers in particular. It therefore urges qualified women to apply. Applications are dealt with in accordance with the equal opportunity legislation. Likewise, the University encourages suitable people with proven impairment to apply.