At the Medical Faculty of Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn, a W3 Professorship in Anatomy and Cell Biology (successor Prof. Karl Schilling) is to be filled at the earliest possible date.

The professorship includes the management of the Institute of Anatomy and Cell Biology. The person to be appointed (m/f/d) is expected to represent the field of anatomy in research and teaching and to strengthen the research priorities of the Medical Faculty (neurosciences, immunology, cardiovascular research). The future holder of the position should have excellent scientific credentials based on publications and third-party funding and possess sound and assured leadership skills. High medical teaching qualifications, practical experience, and excellence in organizing and delivering anatomical teaching (macroscopic anatomy, microscopic anatomy, neuroanatomy) are expected. Experience in hands-on clinical anatomical training on body donors is desirable.

Prerequisites for employment are a completed university degree in medicine or natural sciences and proof of scientific achievements. Experience in teaching according to §36 Hochschulgesetz NRW is desirable.

The University of Bonn is committed to diversity and equal opportunity. It is a certified family-friendly university and has a dual career service. It aims to increase the proportion of women in areas where women are under-represented and to promote their careers in particular. It therefore urges women with relevant qualifications to apply. Applications will be handled in accordance with the State Equality Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (Landesgleichstellungsgesetz - LGG). Applications by suitable individuals with a certified severe disability or those of equal status are particularly welcome.

Qualified applicants are requested to send the application documents in accordance with our application guidelines as well as a maximum of five offprints (https://www.medfak.uni-bonn.de/de/fakultaet/karrierewege/akademische-karriere/berufung) in German or English by July 31, 2022 exclusively by e-mail to:
