The Agricultural Faculty of the Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn invites applications for a permanent position

W3-Professorship "Space Geodesy"

starting as soon as possible.

The professorship is affiliated with the Institute of Geodesy and Geoinformation (IGG).

We seek an outstanding individual who has contributed at an international level to the mathematical and physical foundations of geodesy. Candidates should have a track record in modern space- and satellite-geodetic techniques, highly precise global positioning techniques, or the realization of the global reference frames.

Applications are expected to draw links to existing research areas of the University of Bonn; this will include deriving parameters of the Earth and climate system via mathematical models, scientific computing, and collaboration with neighboring disciplines such as meteorology, (geo-) physics, or radioastronomy.

Success in the acquisition of third-party funding is a prerequisite. The successful candidate will teach in B.Sc. and M.Sc. programs, especially in programs on geodesy and geoinformation.

The conditions of employment are according to §36 Hochschulgesetz NRW.

The University of Bonn is committed to diversity and equal opportunity. It is certified as a family-friendly university and has a dual career service. It aims to increase the proportion of women in areas where women are underrepresented and to particularly facilitate their careers. Therefore, the University of Bonn strongly encourages applications from qualified women. Applications will be handled in accordance with the State Equality Act („Landesgleichstellungsgesetz“). Applications from qualified individuals with a certified severe disability and from those of equal status are particularly welcome.

For further information on this professorship, please contact the chairman of the appointment committee Prof. Dr. Haunert via E-Mail (haunert@igg.uni-bonn.de).

Applications received by March 31th 2022 are guaranteed full consideration. The appointment committee reserves its right to also consider applications submitted after this date.
