The Faculty of Catholic Theology at the University of Bonn invites applications for a

W3 Professorship for Canon Law

This position is to be filled starting April 1, 2022.

We are looking for applications from dynamic individuals with a track record in generating innovative research to issues of Canon Law. The successful candidate will have a doctorate in Catholic theology and either a Habilitation or equivalent qualifications. The position requires the ability to represent the subject in a comprehensive fashion in both research and teaching. Part of the teaching responsibilities are to be performed within the scope of the teacher education at the University of Cologne. Candidates are expected to have excellent didactic skills and a passion for teaching. Experience in the acquisition of third-party funding and the willingness to engage in international collaboration are desired. Practical experience in the application of Canon Law is mandatory.

The successful candidate will be required to participate in the design and implementation of faculty and university-based research projects. In particular, we expect participation in the research focus “Ambiguitäten – Identitäten – Sinnentwürfe” at the faculty, the Inter and Transdisciplinary Research Areas of the University of Bonn and in the acquisition of third-party funding.

The post involves aspects of academic administration.

Conditions of employment are in accordance with § 36 HG NRW.

The University of Bonn is committed to diversity and equal opportunity. It is certified as a family-friendly university and offers a dual career service. The University of Bonn aims to increase the proportion of women in areas where women are underrepresented and to expedite their career progression. To this end, the university strongly encourages applications from qualified women. Applications will be handled in accordance with the NRW State Gender Equality Act. Applications from qualified candidates with a certified severe disability or from those of equal status are particularly welcome.

Please send your application (CV, list of publications, list of courses taught, teaching concept and if available, teaching evaluations, your research plan and copies of qualifications) to the dean of the Faculty of Catholic Theology at the University of Bonn under this address: An der Schloßkirche 2-4, 53113 Bonn, Germany and by email (as a single PDF) to dekanat.ktf@uni-bonn.de by 15.01.2021.
