Sciebo

Your cloud for your data. 30 GB of storage. Permanently free and protecting your data.

VPN

Safety first! Our VPN offers protection when using the internet as well as access to the uni-internal network BONNET. To access services, applications, the HRZ -Doku as well as full texts in the library.

E-Mail

All students receive an email address with which you will receive all university relevant mails.

Uni Bonn App

With the app you have access to your student ID, semester ticket, the library card, check the cafeteria menus, and more.

eCampus

eCampus is your learning platform, where you can find class materials and upload exercises.

Our IT Services for Students

WiFi

With your Uni-ID you can use eduroam. Internationally, at most universities.

Zoom X

For data-protecting video calls. Screensharing, simultaneously using the whiteboard and chatting.

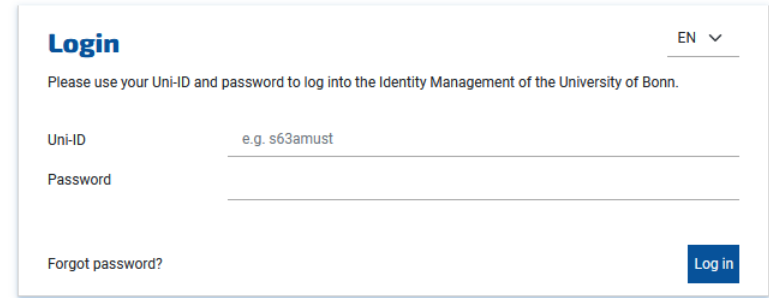

BASIS

With the campus management tool you can organise your exam registration and you have access to the course catalogue.

The screenshot shows the eCampus Learning management system interface. At the top, it says "eCampus | Learning management system of the University of Bonn". Below this is a navigation bar with icons for Repository, Website, and Support. The main content area is titled "Repository" and includes a welcome message: "Welcome to the learning platform of the University of Bonn". It also states: "eCampus is the central teaching and learning platform of the University of Bonn. You will find the learning content, information and eLearning offers of the faculties and institutions in the following repository categories." Below this, there are three columns: "Courses", "Institutions", and "Courses from partner universities". The "Courses" column lists "All eCampus courses from the electronic course catalog (BASIS)" and provides links for "Summer semester 24", "Winter semester 23/24", and "All semesters". The "Institutions" column lists "Further eLearning offers of the central and decentralized institutions" and provides links for "central institutions" and "decentralized institutions". The "Courses from partner universities" column lists "Released courses of the University of Cologne and the Heinrich-Heine-University (HHU) Düsseldorf" and provides a link for "Courses from partner universities".
