

Erasmus+ Fact Sheet for KA171 Partner Universities 2025/26

The University of Bonn

The Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn (University of Bonn) was founded in 1818. With a student body of about 38,000, the University is one of Germany's largest academic institutions and with about 6,000 international students from all over the world also one of the most globally oriented ones. A wide range of course offerings, an outstanding reputation in teaching and research and a unique location make the University an especially attractive place to study.

Bonn, the former Federal Capital of Germany, is located on the Rhine and a center for the Rhineland's way of life, art and culture. In 1989, the city celebrated the 2000th anniversary of its founding as a Roman settlement. With its 21 UN agencies, Bonn is Germany's UN city and has approx. 150 international organizations.

Furthermore, the city is also the birthplace of Beethoven, has a beautiful historic town center with a daily open market, numerous museums and many other buildings and events of significance and cultural interest.

Having 35 years of experience in the Erasmus programme, Erasmus students may expect to be supported by the full range of student services including language courses, orientation programme and academic guidance at the University of Bonn. During the semester, the International Office offers an extensive cultural program as well as various other programs to ensure cultural immersion and intercultural experience.

More information

More information on living in Bonn and private housing is available here.

Visa

What is the procedure for obtaining a visa?

All participants are requested to check the page of the German Foreign Office to see whether they need a visa.

Passport

Students need a passport valid for the entire period of their stay and 6 months beyond.

Insurance

Health insurance

Students need to provide proof of a sufficient health insurance which covers the whole study abroad period for their enrolment at the University of Bonn.

a) Private insurance: students can take out an insurance abroad that covers the European area. Please contact one of the statutory German health insurance companies with the sender number H0001178 to check if your insurance cover is sufficient to be exempted from the statutory German health insurance.

b) Statutory insurance: if no private insurance has been taken out or if there is insufficient cover, students can take out statutory German health insurance, which cost approx. €120 per month. Please contact one of the statutory German health insurance companies with the sender number H0001178 to get insured and request an insurance number.

Please be aware that students who are older than 30 years have to take out a private health insurance.

Liability insurance

We also recommend that students take out a third-party liability insurance to cover any accidental damages caused to other persons or property during their stay.

Accident insurance

The social contribution fee, which students have to pay when enrolling, includes an insurance for accidents that might occur on the way from the university to your place of residence or on university grounds.

 The Erasmus program does not include any insurance.

- first payment upon arrival: travel allowance plus first monthly allowance (cash)
- further payments on German bank account, which students need to open after arrival

Additional funding for individuals experiencing “special” circumstances

Students experiencing “special” circumstances can apply for a supplementary grant. You will find more details in the information sheet on additional funding. Please inform us about these cases when nominating your students.

Additional funding for “green” travel

If you eschew planes and travel to Bonn by train, bus, carsharing or bike instead, you will receive an extra lump-sum allowance of €80. You will also be able to obtain subsidies for any additional days’ travel. More information is available in the information sheet on “green” travel.

Welcome and Social Activities

Welcome days

Welcome days for Erasmus students will be offered before the beginning of each semester (beginning of October and April). Attendance is highly recommended as individual support for late arrivals is very restricted by the International Office. The exact dates are communicated online.

Study Buddy Program

The Study Buddy Program matches newly arrived international students (mentees) with a “buddy”, i.e. a student from Bonn who helps with matters around the taking up of studies and life in Bonn. Student volunteers from Bonn give international students advice and assistance and help them get off to a good start at university and in Bonn.

Erasmus Student Network

The Erasmus Student Network at the University of Bonn organises a lot of events during the term and helps Erasmus students settle down in Bonn. Students can join their Facebook group “Erasmus Student Network Bonn”.

International Club

The International Club of the University of Bonn is a meeting place for German and international students as well as PhD students. During the lecture period, the club offers exciting and diverse events where students can make new contacts as well as get to know other cultures.

BONNews

The bi-weekly Newsletter for international students includes current info on event tips, excursion destinations, job offers and career-related information (subscribe).
