Careers with a Doctorate –
A Day for International Researchers

The event organized by the Bonn Graduate Center and the International Office invites international doctoral and postdoctoral researchers at the University of Bonn to enhance their own profile. Young researchers mostly appreciate their own academic skills and profound knowledge but often are not aware of their vast potential beyond the scientific scope. Are you interested in discovering what hidden talents or skill set you may possess? You are welcome to learn how to present and exploit your various (non-academic) skills for future job applications and positions.

supported by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) with funds from the German Federal Ministry for Education and Research (BMBF) within the “IPID4all” funding program
Registration and the selection of workshops opens at 1:30 p.m.

The program begins at 2:00 p.m. with a welcome note.

After an introduction and the chance to reflect on your own competence profile, you will have the opportunity to take part in two of the following impulse workshops:

» Using intercultural competencies to your advantage
» Efficiently conducting meetings and discussions
» Improved reading: handling large amounts of text and information
» Successfully networking with people and institutions
» Understanding the value of your (non-academic) skill set for future job applications

There will be a coffee-break with refreshments for all participants. The program concludes with a glimpse into all workshop topics and a final discussion.

Afterwards we would like to cordially invite you to stay for a get-together and free dinner reception with drinks till 8 p.m.
