INTERNATIONAL GUESTHOUSE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF BONN
International Guesthouse

Home for scientists from all over the world

The International Guesthouse in the borough of Endenich is a modern, inviting building, a meeting place for scientists from all over the world and maybe it will soon become your „home away from home“. The guesthouse consists of 64 newly renovated apartments and is run by the Studierendenwerk Bonn. It is exclusively available to the University of Bonn.

APARTMENT TYPES

The International Guesthouse offers four different types of apartments:

- Type A: 1-room apartments
- Type B: Duplex apartments
- Type C: Large 1-room apartments
- Type D: 2-room apartments

You will find an overview of all apartments with details of living space, number of beds and flat rate rent here: www.international-guesthouse.uni-bonn.de/apartments
Each apartment is tastefully furnished and comprises the following basic amenities:

- Kitchenette with built-in refrigerator and two hotplates
- Internet connection (LAN)
- Modern bathroom with shower and lavatory
- Desk, chair, armchair, wardrobe and sufficient shelf space
- 1 or 2 beds (depending on apartment type) including bed linen

On the first floor, the in-house service staff (English-speaking) will be pleased to answer all questions concerning your apartment. Towels and dishtowels can also be purchased there for a fee. On the second floor, a common room with a large kitchen will facilitate exchange with fellow housemates.

The International Guesthouse additionally offers:

- Parking spaces (also for bicycles) in the in-house underground parking area
- Washing machines and dryers for a small fee

Please note that the International Guesthouse does not have WiFi. We therefore recommend to bring a LAN cable for your stay in Bonn.
LOCATION

The International Guesthouse is located along the edge of a natural reserve in the borough of Endenich. Within walking distance there are many shops for daily supplies as well as the cultural mile of Endenich with inviting bars and restaurants, an art house cinema and an improvisational theatre.

You are also within walking distance of the Endenich Campus, the Argelander Institute of Astronomy as well as the Max Planck Institute for Radio Astronomy. The Poppelsdorf Campus and the City Campus are quickly reached by bus or bicycle. The city of Bonn has a well-connected bus and train network.
RESERVATIONS

Would you like to live in the International Guesthouse? Reservations can be made online through the Welcome Center for International Researchers at the University of Bonn. The contact details are listed on the following page. As a second step, you will conclude a rental contract with the Studierendwerk Bonn, which is running the guesthouse.

Please note:
- The rental period is at least one and a maximum of twelve months
- Full calendar months are always charged regardless of the actual move-in or move-out date
- Reservation requests must be made at least one month in advance
- Before requesting a reservation, please read the rental terms and take a look at the standard rental agreement. These documents can be found online (URL under contact).
CONTACT
Welcome Center for International Researchers
Ms. Bärbel Heurich
- Email: researcher-housing@uni-bonn.de
- Phone: +49 (0) 228-73 7831
- www.international-guesthouse.uni-bonn.de