

Participation form for external participants

Herewith the following person is admitted to participation in University Sports ("Hochschulsport") as a non-member of the university and under the following conditions:

Personal data

Ms  Mr

Last name

Street and house number

First name

Postcode

City

Email

Phone

The University of Bonn and the person interested in University Sports agree that the interested person can participate in University Sports' activities and classes.

Conditions of participation

- Participation is at the participant's own risk.
- Liability of the university as well as the participants amongst each other is precluded with the exception of cases of willful damage.
- A participation fee is to be paid in advance per semester.
- The participant has to identify himself/herself towards class leaders and university representatives with the "Teilnehmerkarte" issued on base of this agreement.
- The participant is obliged to follow the instructions of the respective class leader unconditionally, and to use the equipment and facilities provided by University Sports with care.
- The participant acknowledges that violations can lead to immediate exclusion from participation in University Sports' activities and classes.
- The participant is strongly advised to get relevant and adequate insurance to cover liability and accident risks.

Date

Signature