Date doctorate was completed¹:

Reasoning in cases where the 2-year period has been exceeded²: _____

¹ The date relevant for the 2-yr. period after receipt of your doctorate depends on the individual timing of your corresponding process: The date that applies is the date of your doctoral certificate unless this was more than one year after your defense/viva voce examination. Otherwise, the date of your oral exams shall apply.

² If your academic career has been delayed due to family obligations, in well-founded cases, an exception may be made from the 2-year period.
