Get to know our Tandem Language Programme!

What is Tandem language learning all about?

Tandem language learning is based on a mutual language exchange. While you are learning someone else’s first language, that person learns your first language from you. So you learn each other’s mother tongues by working in a team of two.

Advantages you can expect from learning a language in a Tandem

- You decide what you want to learn.
- You are free to choose any working material you might want to use.
- You learn from each other and with each other.
- This is your opportunity to actually talk!

Requirements

- You should have at least basic proficiency in your target language.
- You should be willing and able to meet your Tandem partner (online) on a regular basis.
- You should be interested in the Tandem concept.

We are here to support you!

- We match you with a Tandem partner.
- You can contact us with any queries or problems that might come up during your Tandem work.
- We offer you a wide range of online materials for your work in Tandem via eCampus.
